

I find that it is amazing the the scifi channel can air programs like tripping the rift. animated sex acts complete with female dialogue, men farting and a backup program, drinking and bathing in blood, and animal guts, etc. Are you monitoring their thursday line up? I am ashamed to be an American should any other part of the world view these progams.